

PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Policy (“Privacy Policy”) describes the use and processing of information by 6POINT3 TECHNOLOGIES PRIVATE LIMITED, a company incorporated under the laws of India with company registration number U72900DL2022PTC392582 (“Company”). The Company is committed to protecting the User’s information and privacy. The Company provides Services (defined below) to the Users. For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, “Services” shall mean (a) services provided by the Company for collecting the User’s KYC documents and share it with its Partner; (b) services provided by the Company for enabling Users to securely store, manage, and share documents with their partners, such as importers, freight forwarders, customs agents, bankers, and other stakeholders for a specified period, thereby facilitating seamless collaboration and document management; (c) services provided by the Company for offering factoring solutions to the Users; and (d) any other services as may be provided by the Company, from time to time.

This Privacy Policy is designed to help the User understand how the Company may collect, process, store and use the information provided by the User to the Company and to assist the User in making informed decisions while using the website of the Company (“Website”), its Platforms and the Services.

The capitalized terms used in this Privacy Policy, but not defined in this Privacy Policy, shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Terms (defined hereinafter).

Please read this Privacy Policy carefully before using the Website, Platforms, or submitting any personal information. By accessing or using the Website, Platforms, products, or services of the Company, or by providing any User Information (including information related to other persons), such person (“User”) consents to the collection, use, sharing, and disclosure of the information disclosed on the Platforms or during the use of the Services, in accordance with this Privacy Policy. This includes, but is not limited to, the User’s consent for the collection, use, sharing, and disclosure of their information as outlined in this Privacy Policy.

This Privacy Policy has been published inter alia in compliance with the provisions of the Information Technology Act, 2000 and the rules and regulations made thereunder (including, but not limited to: (i) The Information Technology (Reasonable Security Practices and Procedures and Sensitive Personal Data or Information) Rules, 2011; and (ii) The Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021).

Please also note that the Privacy Policy will also apply to information of Users supplied by other Users. In case of information of Users supplied by other Users, the User providing the information confirms and warrants that the User has the authority to provide the necessary User Information.

1. Other applicable terms

This Privacy Policy is a part of and incorporated within, and is to be read along with the terms and conditions published on the Website and Platforms of the Company (the “Terms”).

2. Policy changes

The Company may change and update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Such changes may be made without prior notice, but any changes will only apply to activities and information on a going forward and not retroactive basis, unless specified otherwise. The Users are encouraged to review this Privacy Policy before accessing any Services provided by the Company to make sure that the Users understand how any personal information provided by the User will be used.

3. Links to Third Party Websites

The procedures and practices set forth in this Privacy Policy describe the use and disclosure of User Information collected by the Company. The Website and / or other platforms of the Company, as available (“Platforms”) may contain links to other websites. Any personal information about the User collected when such User visits such websites is not governed by this Privacy Policy. The User is encouraged to exercise caution and review the privacy policies applicable to such websites before accessing them. - (c) Information collected from cookies is used by the Company to evaluate the effectiveness of the Platforms, analyse trends, identify difficulties visitors may experience in accessing the Platforms, and administer the Platforms.

8. Storage of User Information

- (a) User Information in the possession and control of the Company is stored in accordance with the applicable laws. Storage and transfer of User Information is carried out in compliance with all applicable laws, including without limitation, the Information Technology Act, 2000 and the Information Technology (Reasonable security practices and procedures and sensitive personal data or information) Rules, 2011. Please note that the Services have reasonable security measures, including as mentioned in the Information Technology Act, 2000 in place to protect against the loss or misuse of the User Information. Whenever a User changes or accesses the User's account information, the Company offers the use of a secure server. However, the User acknowledges that transacting over the internet has inherent risks which can only be avoided by the User following reasonable security practices, such as not revealing account / login related information to any other person and informing the Company's customer care team about any suspicious activity or where the User's account has / may have been compromised.
- (b) The Company implements reasonable security practices and procedures and has a comprehensive documented information security programme and information security policies that contain managerial, technical, operational and physical security control measures that are commensurate with respect to the information being collected and the nature of the Company's business. The Company has put in place appropriate physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and help prevent unauthorized access, maintain data security, and correctly use the User Information the Company collects online.
- (c) Please note that the Company does not guarantee that there will be no unintended disclosures of the User Information and data provided by a User on account of a data breach, unauthorized access, security failure, etc. The Company cannot guarantee, gives no warranties, and shall not be liable for breaches of the security of User Information through the Services of the Company due to malicious attacks, errors, commissions, or omissions not wilfully initiated by the Company, and any transmission is at the risk of the User.
- (d) As part of the business functionality of the Company, the Company may retain and submit certain User Information to the third parties as required as well as to appropriate legal and regulatory authorities (when requested to do so).

- (e) The Company may also disclose information in the event it is required to do so by law, rule, regulation, law enforcement agency, governmental official, legal authority or similar requirements or when the Company, in its sole discretion, deems it necessary in order to protect its rights or the rights of others, to prevent harm to persons or property, to fight fraud and credit risk, or to enforce or apply this Privacy Policy.
- (f) Each User accepts and acknowledges that any User Information available with the Company may also be used by the Company: (a) for the purpose of providing the Services available on the Platforms; (b) in an aggregated or non-personally identifiable form for the purpose of research and analysis and for transfer of such research and analysis; (c) for communication purpose; (d) debugging customer support related issues; and / or (e) in anonymized form (i.e., non-personally identifiable) in order to help grow the business of the Company. Each User hereby consents to such collection, use and disclosure.
- (g) Additionally, User Information may be shared by the Company with a third party in case of any proposed merger, acquisition or re-organization, amalgamation, or restructuring of business.
- (h) Data transfers to other countries: The Company may transfer User Information to countries other than the country in which such User Information originally was collected. Those countries may not have the same data protection laws as the country in which the User has initially provided the information. When the Company transfers User Information to such other countries, the Company will protect such User Information as described in this Privacy Policy.

9. Dissemination of User Information

Where any service requested by a User involves a third party, such information as is reasonably necessary by the Company to carry out the User's service request may be shared with such third party and the Company may also obtain details and information from the third party on usage. The Company may also engage with other companies / persons to complete services, process payments, and provide customer service. The Users understand that they have access to personal information needed to perform their functions.

Additionally, User Information may be shared by the Company with a third-party business entity in case of any proposed merger, acquisition or re-organization, amalgamation, or restructuring of business.

The Company may be required to disclose any information that is lawfully sought from it by a judicial or other competent body pursuant to applicable laws.

The Company may anonymize and /or de-identify information collected from the Users. The Company's use and disclosure of aggregated and / or de-identified information is not restricted by this Privacy Policy and it may be used and disclosed to others without limitation.

10. Retention of User Information

The Company shall retain the personal information of the User as long as it serves the purpose(s) for which it was initially collected as stated in the Privacy Policy or subsequently authorized. The Company may continue processing the User's personal information for a period beyond such period only for the time and to the extent such processing reasonably serves the purposes of archiving, and subject to the protection of this Privacy Policy and to comply with requirements under applicable laws. After the expiry of this time period, the Company may either delete the User's personal information or retain it in a form such that it does not identify the User personally.

11. Communication policy

When the User sets up an account or receives any request pursuant to the provision of the Services, the User is deemed to have opted in to receive emails and messages from the Company and its service providers in connection with the provision of the Services as well as any marketing and promotional agencies. While the User may opt out of promotional messages, the User cannot opt out of receiving certain administrative, financial, technical and legal information from the Company in connection with the Services.

12. Alteration of User Information

In case the User requests any change or deletion of User Information of the User, or permanently deletes the User Information, the User must contact the Company at leconnect@leremitt.com or contact the Data Protection and Grievance Officer. Do note that the Company is not obligated to alter, vary or delete any User Information which it is required to maintain under applicable laws or pursuant to contractual requirements of the Company.

13. Data breach and disclosure notification

In case of a data breach or an unauthorized disclosure of User Information which is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of the User, unless the Company has appropriately mitigated the risk arising from such incident, the Company shall, within 2 (two) days notify the affected Users of such breach with the details of the breach or incident, the consequences of such breach and the contact personnel of the Company in case of any queries by the User pertaining to such breach.

In case any governmental or regulatory authority requires the Company to provide any User Information, unless specifically directed by the governmental or regulatory authority, the Company shall disclose to the User, the details of the request for the User Information.

14. Termination of access

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary:

- (a) where any User commits a breach of / fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Privacy Policy;
- (b) where any User fails to comply with applicable law;
- (c) where any User uploads or provides information or data on the Platforms, which is not compliant with or violates any applicable law or the Privacy Policy;
- (d) where the User commits a breach of the intellectual property rights of the Company and / or any third person;
- (e) where the Company ceases to carry on its business or the Platforms being taken offline;
